Hijacker tracked, caught

CITIZEN REPORTER

A MAN will appear in Boksburg Magistrate's Court today after he was arrested for allegedly hijacking a car dealership employee at a Boksburg petrol station.

The Audi Q5 was being filled for delivery on the corner of Rietfontein and Rondebult roads. Two armed men told the driver to get out of the car.

The car had a Tracker and "was recovered on the N3 near the London Road off-ramp in less than 15 minutes. One suspect was arrested," said Tracker's Gareth Crocker.

Police are investigating and hope to make more arrests soon.

The vehicle was held for a few hours to gather forensic evidence.
